Dear Parents and Carers

Book Week 2018

Next week is Book Week! We are introducing a new activity to Book Week this year; on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next week we would like to invite parents to come into the classrooms to start the day by sharing a book with your child. We will have lots of books here – but if there is a favourite you'd like to bring from home, please feel free.

In addition, we will have our annual Dress Up day on Thursday 1st March, World Book Day. Children can come to school dressed as a book character. We will do our usual parade around the playground and then award prizes in the hall before we go into class for our reading time.

Year 1 and Year 2 are visiting Kensington Central Library in Hornton Street for a story-telling event, also on Thursday.

All through the week, teachers will be swapping classes to read some of their favourite stories; and our story-telling chair will be in full use in the playground, with members of staff taking turns for story time at playtime and lunchtime.

We will run our usual competition with Daunts bookshop later in the year – so no entries yet please.

To summarise:

- Wednesday, Thursday, Friday 28th February – 2nd March: share a book with your child in the classroom, 8:55am – 9:20am
- Thursday 1st March: dress up as a book character
- Thursday 1st March: Year 1 and Year 2 story-telling event

Let's get reading!

Yours sincerely
