Government guidelines

You will have seen in the news that the government's lockdown restrictions are beginning to be eased. However, in school, we are doing all we can to stick to social distancing rules still and following our risk assessment procedures until the end of term. We ask staff and parents to continue to keep 2m apart.

School finishes for most on Thursday 16th July. For the few children who will be in school on Friday 17th July, school will stay open until 3.30pm.

This Book is Anti Racist

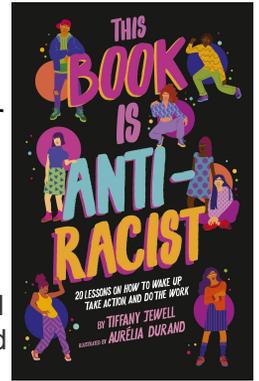

We recommend this book for parents and some of our older children. The blurb says:

"Who are you? What is racism?

Where does it come from?

Why does it exist? What can you do to disrupt it? Learn about social identities, the history of racism and resistance against it, and how you can use your anti-racist lens and voice to move the world toward equity and liberation.

Next summer's school journey(s)

We have secured the Gordon Brown Centre for next year's school journey but we're also pleased to announce that we will be able to take both Y5 and Y6 in the Summer Term 2021, meaning that no children will have missed the experience due to the coronavirus pandemic.

Meal vouchers for the summer holiday

Families entitled to Free School Meals will receive an email on Monday 13th July to redeem their £105 voucher per child. This will cover a 7 week period from the 20.07.20 until 06.09.20 (inclusive).

Play provision

Before the end of term, we will make sure that all of those who have shown an interest in play provision during the holidays will have all the necessary details. Thank you for getting in touch with us. As soon as we have heard more details, we will in contact the relevant families directly.

Relationships, Sex and Health Education

(RSHE) From September, we will be teaching the new RSHE curriculum but we would also like to consult with parents before we start. A consultation date for parents from both schools has been set for Thursday 9th July at 6pm so please email info-st@stfed.rbkc.sch.uk if you'd like to join us online.
