Newsletter - Friday 27 April 2018

This week...

The eggs have arrived in Reception! We have an incubator in the classroom and will be listening and watching closely to see our chicks hatch. We'll let you know when they arrive.

More new arrivals ... Sarah Bouette and Ellie Dowthwaite (Executive Headteacher and Head of School from September 2018) will be in the hall on Monday 30 April to meet parents at 9am. Do take this opportunity to meet them and say hello.

This week, Year 1 and Year 6 shared some of their learning with us in assembly. It was a pleasure to hear the story Year 1 told us (a story is always a good start to the day), and particularly impressive to hear Year 6 children speak so maturely about the standards they aspire to in their writing. They shared some very good pieces of creative writing. They have really given us all something to live up to.

This week, the Y5/6 girls' football team had their first two matches in the borough league, and won both of them very convincingly. Well done girls!

Have a good weekend.

A letter is going home today about a parent governor vacancy. Please do consider whether you could stand for election. The letter and the nomination form are also on the website in the Governors' section.

Attendance to date: 96%

This is great... let's aim higher though!

Ellie Dowthwaite and Sarah Bouette, our Head of School and Executive Headteacher from September, are really keen to meet parents. They will be in the hall on Monday 30 April at 9am, right after drop-off - come and have a cup of coffee and a chat with them and with Sean Doherty, Chair of Governors.
