This week...

This week, Year 5 and Year 6 both took part in workshops run by "Just Enough", designed to make them think about stereotypes, reflect on their own beliefs and how these inform their perspective on life, and continue to develop respect for different people's faiths, feelings and values. The children learnt a lot about people who have brought about change by using their voice, rather than imposing their views in other ways. Ask your children about the bananas argument! Both classes enjoyed the workshop, and threw themselves into the activities and discussions.

Please make sure that you are signed up for a parent-teacher meeting - we hope to see all children's parents or carers by half term, to share their progress with you. If you haven't already made an appointment please contact the school office as soon as possible.

Have a great weekend.

This is below our target to meet national average.

Each time we face our fear, we gain strength, courage, and confidence in the doing.

This anonymous quote is a great thing to remember when we're faced with something that seems challenging.

Rev Steve Divall, vicar of St Helen's, reminded us in our Monday assembly about Jesus calming the storm. The disciples were certainly afraid, but found help and safety with Jesus. Perhaps this episode helped them grow in strength, courage and confidence.
