This week...

What a week! Year 6 had their SATs tests this week, and I am sure we could have powered the nation with the brain power steaming out of them during their tests. Well done to them all - we wait now till 10 July to hear how they have done.

Year 5 left for Wick Court Farm today, full of anticipation for a week of new experiences. I know they will have a fabulous time, and we look forward to hearing all their stories on their return.

We have also had much excitement along the bottom corridor, with chicks hatching in Reception and tiny frogs hopping in Year 2. Everyone in the school loves to see the chicks - it is amazing how many people suddenly have reason to visit Reception! They have returned to Vauxhall City Farm today, but if you didn't manage to see them, children in Reception can tell you all about them.

Next week is Walk to School Week, and children are bringing home a booklet today about how they can get involved. Even if you live too far away to walk, everyone can take part, by getting off the bus one stop earlier or parking just that bit further away. There are lovely activities to do on your walk, and sunflower seeds to plant at the end of the week.

Have a good weekend.

The final bits of sponsorship money for Sport Relief have now come in. We raised a massive £677.46 through our sponsored mile and by paying £1 to come to school in sports clothes. Well done everyone!

Attendance to date: 96.1%
This is slightly higher but I know we can do better.
