Newsletter - Friday 19 October 2018

This week...

There has been lots of great learning this week. Year 1 enjoyed a trip to the Kentish Town City Farm which linked to their literacy learning, 'The Giant Turnip'.

We all enjoyed our Poetry Assembly - 'Don't Put Mustard in the Custard' By Michael Rosen. Well done to Year 3 on Wednesday for an enthusiastic poem recital! What a joy to see you all performing in unison with such energy. You stood tall and proud in front of the whole school and used clear, loud voices. Michael Rosen would have been in awe! Well done to Miss Richardson for helping the children to perform at such a high standard. We loved it!

Have a lovely half term and remember Monday 29 October is an inset day, no school for children. First day back is Tuesday 30 October.

Best wishes Ellie and Sarah

★ WE NEED YOU!

★ Volunteer Readers - Do you have any spare time to be volunteer reader helper?

★ At our school, reading is a high priority; it is vital in order for children to become independent learners and achieve in all areas of the curriculum. We want children to become enthusiastic and reflective readers, who know the importance of reading as a life-long skill in the wider world, but also appreciate the written word as an art form. If you have any spare time to read with children, please let us know!

Miss Hussey with her medal. She completed the course in 2 hours 28 minutes 47 seconds.

Please be aware that children are not permitted to bring putty in to school. Recently there have been arguments about ownership of the putty. Theraputty will only be allowed with prior agreement of the class teacher.

St Clement and St James'

Super Ambassadors!

Here are some of Super Ambassadors from year 6: Darcey, Ruby-Sue and Indigo. They have a variety of responsibilities and jobs in our school community.

What do you do?

Darcey "We help our teachers when they need us. For example, sending children in from the lunch line safely. We make sure they enter the building five children at a time."

Ruby-Sue "We keep an eye on behaviour on the stairs, making sure everyone follows instructions. We also make sure pupils are happy and like school. We want them to feel included."

Indigo "We try hard to be helpful, enthusiastic, positive and fair. We help others to make the right choices."
